

Cancellation policy

- Classes cancelled due to acts of nature (Inclement weather, extreme temperatures, power outages, etc.) will not be made up or refunded as these things are out of our control.
- In the event of extreme snowfall or other adverse weather conditions, cancellations will be posted on Cobequid Spartans Facebook and Instagram pages, as well as Bounce radio and our voicemail. It is your responsibility to check to see if classes are running.
- If Spartans cancels a class due to reasons other than acts of nature, you will be offered a make up class or credit at the discretion of CSGC. There are no substitutes or credits available if you are unable to attend make-up classes.

Holiday Closure policy

- Scheduled holiday closures will be made up at a time determined by CSGC and communicated to you at the start of the Term. No alternative days are offered for make-up classes.
- Starting Term #3 2021/22 There will be no make-up classes for holiday closures. Affected classes will have their fees adjusted upon registration.
